Why am I running?

I need to do more local acting & less global thinking.
It's time to get off the couch and into the game.

My whole life, no matter where I go, I'm driven to make things better, easier, more enjoyable for all.

Now I live here, so...

I believe Sheboygan's greatest resource is its people.

When motivated and united, there's no telling what we can do. Let's find out together!

In the marketplace, competition for goods and services benefits the consumer.

In government, competition of ideas benefits the taxpayer.

I fear our leadership is suffering from groupthink, which closes eyes and ears to good ideas and limits the range of workable solutions. It can also lead to diminished, even poor, decision-making capacity.

I'll bring fresh energy and desire to help my neighbors and fresh eyes and ideas to invigorate, strengthen and safeguard the decision making process.

Oh, and for this little guy, so he can grow up to love Sheboygan just like Nana and Papa.
